Discussion

S.J.Res. 314, which passed both Houses by voice vote, designates October 1988 as "Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month," to increase public awareness of pregnancy loss and infant death and focus attention on the devastating emotional effects on the thousands of parents who lose children to miscarriage, stillbirth, or infant death each year. The enrolled resolution authorizes and requests the President to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe this month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

A proclamation commemorating October 1988 as "Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month" was issued on October 25, 1988.
